

THE GREAT FIRE OF LONDON

Story maker by
Robin Price.
Copyright © Mogzilla 2015.
www.creativewritingclub.co.uk

1. CHOOSE TWO CHARACTERS FOR YOUR THE STORY. Tick the ones you want.

- | | | | |
|--------------|---------------------|-----------------|--------------|
| a baker | the Mayor of London | the bucket gang | a rat |
| Samuel Pepys | a robber | a sailor | a young girl |

2. WHERE IS THE MOST EXCITING PART OF YOUR STORY?

- | | | | |
|----------------------------------|-----------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|
| The baker's shop on Pudding Lane | The Mayor of London's house | The docks (Some of the ships here are full of gunpowder for the Dutch War!) | Grey's inn (Robbers are known to hang out here!) |
|----------------------------------|-----------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|

3. WHAT CAN YOUR CHARACTER SEE, HEAR AND SMELL?

- | | | | | | |
|-----------------------------|--------------------|-----------------------------------|---------------------------|---------------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| The whole street is on fire | People are leaving | The gunpowder ships are exploding | The Mayor is still asleep | Criminals are stealing people's stuff | Rats are running from the fire |
|-----------------------------|--------------------|-----------------------------------|---------------------------|---------------------------------------|--------------------------------|

4. WRITE THE STORY. WILL YOUR CHARACTERS RUN OR WILL THEY STAY AND HELP?

IF YOU ARE WORKING WITH A PARTNER,
WRITE ONE LINE EACH.

Story maker by
Robin Price.
Art by Rebecca Davy.
Copyright © Mogzilla 2015.
www.creativewritingclub.co.uk